J. M. ROBERTS, Postmaster.

Suffering in the Army.

Six men were frozen to death in the army of the Potomac on Saturday night, and seven others died from the effects of the cold. They were on picket duty. This seems scarcely possible, if they were properly clothed and in good health.

ANOTHER MOVEMENT.—Gen. Franklin's corps of Burnside's army left Ball Plain on Saturday. This place is on a point of the Potomac river, below Aquia Creek, which extends westward towards the Rappahannock, seven miles distant from the latter river, and ten miles above Port Royal, where a portion of Burnside's army had previously landed. This looks like work.

NO MEETING.—There was no quorum for the regular meeting of the common council Thursday, and an attempt to hold a special meeting Saturday evening failed for the same reason. This inability to get a quorum for the transaction of business is just now affecting important interests, and something ought to be done by which the sickness of a single member (as in the present instance) will not prevent a meeting.

THE EIGHTH REGIMENT.—A letter from Capt. Britton, dated the 24th of November, says that the 8th Wisconsin regiment was to be moved to the front the next day.

FINANCIAL.—During the last month the following was the amount and kind of coinage at the United States mint: Gold, 11,730 pieces, value $263,629.19; silver, 119,616 pieces, value $41,153.21; copper, 4,020,000 pieces, value $10,200. Total number of pieces coined 4,151,345, valued at $344,982.39.

MORE COUNTERFEITS.—Spurious 3s on the Mechanics and Traders' Bank of Portsmouth, N. H., and 5s on the Bank of Syracuse are reported to be in circulation.

GIVING HIM UP.—The Chicago Journal, which has frequently censured other people for distrusting the fitness of Gen. McClellan to command the armies of the Union, is at last getting its eyes open, and yielding to the accumulating proof of his tardiness and incompetency. It now says:

HALLUCK OF McClellan.—The official statement of General-in-Chief Halleck on the operations of Gen. McClellan, a synopsis of which we published to-day, gives us a most interesting chapter of history, and opens the eyes of the country to the fact that, if ever the wrong man was in the wrong place, that man was McClellan while in command of the army of the Potomac. Our readers will bear us witness that we have stated resolutely and persistently by Gen. McClellan so long as he was in command, and while, for aught we know, he had the confidence of his superiors. But the revelations of Gen. Halleck put it out of the power of his warmest friends to longer defend him, or excuse his conduct.

NEW YORK CHARTER ELECTION.—The democracy carried the charter election in that city, of course, on Tuesday. M. T. Brennan was elected comptroller, and Jno. E. Devlin was elected counsel to the corporation. About all the aldermen and councilmen elected were democrats, so that the common council will be overwhelmingly Fernando-Wood-democratic.

A RATHER LOOK WAY.—Not long since a fellow was arrested here for a robbery at a house in the 4th ward, and he was locked up for it, having confessed the crime. Afterwards he was liberated, with the understanding that he was going into the army as a substitute, and he was. Yesterday the name of the fellow was at large again, about the streets of the city, and will doubtless soon give our officers another opportunity to make an arrest for some robbery. We don't complain that he was allowed to go into the army, but if he is not "going for a soldier," why he is allowed to be at large again?—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

WE HAVE NEVER SEEN THE PROPERTY OR JUSTICE of turning vagrants and thieves into the army, either in the volunteer or regular service. Both branches are mainly, at least, composed of honest men and gentlemen, and it is insult and waste to impose upon respectable men known rogues as a release from the punishment of admitted crimes.

THE 28th regiment expects to leave the state this week.

W. H. JEWELL'S STORE, Lapin's Corner.

GOVERNOR SEYMOUR.—We regret to see a portion of the republican and independent press attach so much importance to the opinions and utterances of Gov. Seymour of New York. His election is the expression of opinion merely 10,000 voters above those who voted for General Wadsworth, not half so great as the number of secessionists and rebel sympathizers in the Empire State, all of whom voted for Seymour, while the soldiers of the state have been counted by thousands the other way. So much for the moral significance of Seymour's election.

OUR AGAIN.—In consequence of the rejection of several returns from the regiments by the state canvassers, for informalities, Hon. John H. Rountree, of Plattville, has threatened to bring a majority to the assembly, will fail to receive a certificate of election.—Madison Journal.

It is Not a Dye.

But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural substance, imparted by age of disease. All infirmities of the hair are cured by the use of this dye, and the hair is restored to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a Luxuriant Beauty.

It promotes the hair, prevents its falling out, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and pleasantness to the hair. It has stood the test of time, being the original hair coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable druggists, or can be procured by mail from the proprietor, J. S. Rogers, 203 Broadway, N. Y. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. Sent by mail.
